A level French summer work

We are very pleased that you have chosen to carry on with your French studies. Learning a foreign language is a challenging but rewarding experience and the skills you will gain will undoubtedly boost your future employability.

We are following the AQA specification. For detailed information about the course content and assessment, click on this link:
http://www.aqa.org.uk/subjects/languages/as-and-a-level/french-7651

This is the work you must complete over the summer:

1 Grammar boost, revision of main tenses:

➢ Prepare a revision card on each of the following tenses:

➢ Present, future (will), perfect tense (le passé composé), imperfect (l'imparfait) and conditional (would).

➢ include on your card: when you would use that tense, how is it formed and an example of a verb conjugated in that tense.

➢ Complete and print around 10 interactive tense tasks to further practise, use:
https://www.languagesonline.org.uk/Hotpotatoes/frenchindex.html#Grammar

Help: The following website also has detailed explanations in the tense section:
https://www.laits.utexas.edu/tex/gr/index.html

* to conjugate: write a verb in a specific tense using all persons: je / tu / il / nous / vous / ils

2 Book: No et moi

The book you will study is 'No et Moi' by Delphine de Vigan
- Purchase the book ISBN: 9782253124801
- Purchase the study guide: ISBN-10: 1471890074
- You can also read the English version first

In preparation, you can have a go at reading the book in French if you can or read it in English. Don't worry if you find this a bit too daunting as we will read the book together in class before analysing themes and characters together.

Write a paragraph about who your favourite character is and why – 70 to 100 words max (in French if you can)

3 Explore online resources

Refer to the online resources listed in the transition booklet, start exploring the content, you can pick and choose what you want to complete. Be ready to share your favourite site and explain why you found it useful.